

Study Rooms

Need a space to study? Individual and group study rooms are available on the first and second floors of the library as well as B2. While the study rooms are always open for walk-ins, you can also make a reservation on the library's website under "Quick Links."

Library Exhibits

Check out the newest exhibits at the libraries! Learn about "1000 Black Girl Books," a campaign started by 11-year-old Marley Dias in the 2nd floor silent section. Find out about Black independent cinema at the exhibit in the Media Resource Center. Take a trip to Parsons Music Library to learn about Nina Simone. Check back regularly to see our newest exhibits!

Scanning and Copying in Boatwright

Boatwright Library has a book scanner and one cash operated copier that doubles as a scanner, both located on the first floor. In order to use the scanners you must use a flash drive which can be checked out at the front desk. If you need assistance with scanning or copying, a library employee will be happy to help you out.

UR Scholarship Repository

The UR Scholarship Repository provides open access to scholarly publications by Richmond faculty and students. Items are being added all the time, so go to scholarship.richmond.edu to discover the amazing publications of fellow Spiders today!
