

Student Library Advisory Committee Application

The purpose of the Student Library Advisory Committee (SLAC) is to communicate the needs and perspectives of the student body in regard to library and information resources, and to serve as library ambassadors to the University of Richmond community. Specifically, committee members will:

- Provide a student perspective on relevant library issues
- Attend each monthly meeting (as listed below)
- Participate in a minimum of 3 service activities per year
- Promote the library among UR students
- Help to shape the future design, programs, and services of Boatwright Library

Who may apply

University of Richmond students from all majors, schools, and years are encouraged to apply. Boatwright Library seeks a diverse group of outgoing students who will represent the various needs and perspectives of the UR student population.
